David T. Feinberg, M.D., MBA

Dr. David T. Feinberg is president and chief executive officer of Geisinger Health System, one of the nation's largest health services organization known for reinventing medical care. Geisinger is an integrated healthcare system consisting of 12 hospital campuses, two research centers, over 30,000 employees, 1,600 employed physicians, 420 residents and fellows, and a 510,000-member health plan, all serving and caring for more than 3 million residents in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

A longtime champion of the patient experience, Dr. Feinberg has caught the industry's attention by introducing Geisinger's latest evolution of its renowned ProvenCare® portfolio -ProvenExperience® - which allows patients to request a refund based on the outcome of their patient experiences.

Triple-board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology in child, adolescent and addiction psychiatry, Dr. Feinberg earned his undergraduate degree at the University of California, Berkeley, and graduated with distinction from the University of Health Sciences/Chicago Medical School. He earned a Master's of Business Administration from Pepperdine University.

In addition to being named to the 100 Most Influential People in Healthcare as well as the Top Ten of the 50 Most Influential Physician Executives and Leaders by Modern Healthcare, Dr. Feinberg has received numerous awards and recognitions. Dr. Feinberg is also a well-known national speaker and has published numerous articles.

Prior to joining Geisinger, Dr. Feinberg served as CEO of UCLA's hospitals and associate vice chancellor of UCLA Health Sciences, as well as president of UCLA Health System.
